State Dept. declassification & release instructions on file

Mr. H. Freeman Matthews
Deputy Under Secretary
Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Matthews:

General Smith has asked me to reply to your letter of 7 November 1952 which asks for this Agency's opinion of the revised Policy Statement concerning the return of seized German documents.

The revisions incorporated in the draft dated 24 October, 1952, do not appear to have any significant bearing upon this Agency's interests, and I am therefore happy to express our concurrence in its text.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

ROBERT AMORY, JR.
Acting Deputy Director/Intelligence
